CORE LAW COURSES* acceptable for the JD/MBE dual degree (students must choose 2 CORE law courses from this list for the JD/MBE dual degree):

- Advanced/Regulatory Law and Policy Seminar
- Animal Law and Ethics/Animal Law Seminar
- Bioethics
- Bioethics and the Law: Mental Illness and Moral Lives
- Bioethics, Babies, and Babymaking
- Biotechnology and Intellectual Property Rights
- Drug Product Liability Litigation
- FDA Law
- Health Care Fraud
- Health Law & Regulation
- Health Law and Policy
- Health Law, Economics, and Policy
- Human Reproduction: Law & Policy
- Law and Bioethics
- Law, Science, and Technology
- Mental Health and Morality
- Mental Health Law
- Patient Litigation
- Patent Law
- Patent Law – Appellate Advocacy
- Pharmaceutical Regulation & Enforcement
- Public Health Law & Policy
- Regulation of Health Insurance Markets
- Technology and Policy
- Topics in Public Health Law

LAW ELECTIVES acceptable for the JD/MBE dual degree:

- Administrative Law
- Advanced Topics in Intellectual Property
- American Public Benefits Law
- Ethical Perspectives
- Ethics of Regulation
- Foundations of Environment Law and Policy
- Human Rights and National Security
- Insurance Law & Policy
- International Human Rights
- Introduction to Intellectual Property Law & Policy
- Issues of Global Human Rights
- Law & Policy of Cost-Benefit Analysis
- Law & Sexuality
- Legal Responses to Inequality
- Legislation
- Litigation for Social Change
- Mediation Clinic (and other courses about alternatives to litigation)
- Negotiation and Dispute Resolution/ Negotiation Skills & Strategy
- Philosophical Basis of Legal and Moral Equality
- Policy Analysis
- Privacy and Data Protection
- Problems in Law and Morality
- Prof. Responsibility: Traversing the Ethical Minefield
- Tobacco: Legal, Political, and Ethical Perspectives
- Topics in Law and Morality

All law classes must be taken for 1.0 CU (credit unit) in order to count towards the JD/MBE dual degree

1.0 CU is considered equivalent to 3.0 SH (semester hours) at the law school. A course listed as a 0.5 CU is equivalent to 1.5 SH.